The Honorable John K. Stewart
Presiding Judge
Superior Court of California, County of San Francisco
400 McAllister Street
San Francisco, CA 94102

Dear Judge Stewart:

The following is a report on the 2014-2015 Civil Grand Jury Report (Report), "San Francisco's Whistleblower Protection Ordinance is in Need of Change."

The Board of Supervisors Government Audit and Oversight Committee conducted a public hearing on September 3, 2015, to discuss the findings and recommendations of the Civil Grand Jury and the departments' responses to the report.

The following City departments submitted a response to the Civil Grand Jury (copies enclosed):

- Ethics Commission Executive Director
Received August 3, 2015, for Findings 1, 2, 3.1, 3.2, and 4 and Recommendations 1.1, 1.3, 2.1, 2.2, 3, and 4
- Ethics Commission
Received August 3, 2015, for Findings 1, 2, 3.1, 3.2, and 4 and Recommendations 1.1, 1.3, 2.1, 2.2, 3, and 4
- Mayor's Office
Received August 6, 2015, for Findings 1, 2, 3.1, 3.2, 4 and Recommendations 1.4, 2.1, 2.2, 3, and 4

The Report was heard in committee and a Resolution was prepared for the Board of Supervisors approval that formally accepted or rejected the findings and recommendations requiring the Board of Supervisors response September 8, 2015 (copy of Resolution No. 325-15 enclosed).

If you have any questions, please contact me at (415) 554-5184.

Sincerely,

Angela Calvillo
Clerk of the Board

10 WHEREAS, Under California Penal Code, Section 933 et seq., the Board of 11 Supervisors must respond, within 90 days of receipt, to the Presiding Judge of the Superior
12 Court on the findings and recommendations contained in Civil Grand Jury Reports; and

13 WHEREAS, In accordance with California Penal Code, Section 933.05(c), if a finding or 14 recommendation of the Civil Grand Jury addresses budgetary or personnel matters of a 15 county agency or a department headed by an elected officer, the agency or department head
16 and the Board of Supervisors shall respond if requested by the Civil Grand Jury, but the 17 response of the Board of Supervisors shall address only budgetary or personnel matters over 18 which it has some decision making authority; and

19 WHEREAS, Under San Francisco Administrative Code, Section 2.10(a), the Board of 20 Supervisors must conduct a public hearing by a committee to consider a final report of the 21 findings and recommendations submitted, and notify the current foreperson and immediate 22 past foreperson of the civil grand jury when such hearing is scheduled; and

23 WHEREAS, In accordance with San Francisco Administrative Code, Section 2.10(b), 24 the Controller must report to the Board of Supervisors on the implementation of

1 recommendations that pertain to fiscal matters that were considered at a public hearing held 2 by a Board of Supervisors Committee; and

3 WHEREAS, The 2014-2015 Civil Grand Jury Report, entitled "San Francisco's
4 Whistleblower Protection Ordinance is in Need of Change" (Report) is on file with the Clerk of 5 the Board of Supervisors in File No. 150603, which is hereby declared to be a part of this 6 Resolution as if set forth fully herein; and

7 WHEREAS, The Civil Grand Jury has requested that the Board of Supervisors respond
8 to Finding Nos. 1, 2, 3.1, 3.2, and 4, as well as Recommendation Nos. 1.2, 2.1, 2.2, 3, and 4
9 contained in the subject Report; and

10 WHEREAS, Finding No. 1 states: "The [Whistleblower Protection Ordinance] (WPO)
11 does not fully "protect" City officers and employees from retaliation for filing a complaint as 12 required by the Charter mandate of Proposition C, because it covers only a limited range of 13 complaints, it provides no effective remedy for the victim, and its secrecy provisions limit its 14 deterrent effect;" and

15 WHEREAS, Finding No. 2 states: "The WPO also fails to fulfill the Charter mandate, in 16 that it does not cover all whistleblower disclosures specified in the Charter;" and

17 WHEREAS, Finding No. 3.1 states: "While other large California cities and counties
18 have relatively weak laws protecting their employees from retaliation for whistleblowing, this 19 does not relieve the Board of its responsibility under the Charter mandate, to enact an 20 ordinance that genuinely protects whistleblowers;" and

21 WHEREAS, Finding No. 3.2 states: "Whistleblower protection laws that cover 22 government employees at the state and Federal level can serve as a useful model for 23 improving the WPO;" and

24 WHEREAS, Finding No. 4 states: "The WPO creates an unwarranted obstacle to 25 administrative complaints of retaliation filed with the Ethics Commission, by imposing a

1 burden of proof on the complainant during preliminary review and investigation of such 2 complaints;" and

3 WHEREAS, Recommendation No. 1.2 states: "If the Ethics Commission fails to act
4 within a reasonable time, that the Board of Supervisors on its own amend the WPO to provide 5 real protection to whistleblowers, in conformity with the Charter mandate of Proposition C;"
6 and

7 WHEREAS, Recommendation No. 2.1 states: "That amendments to the WPO expand
8 the definition of whistleblowing to cover oral complaints to the complainant's department;
9 disclosures to a City department or commission other than the complainant's own; and 10 providing information to any of the recipients listed in the Charter mandate (hereafter "listed 11 recipients"), outside of the formal complaint or investigation process;" and

12 WHEREAS, Recommendation No. 2.2 states: "That these amendments further expand
13 the scope of covered disclosures to include "providing information" to any of the listed
14 recipients regarding improper government activities, whether or not such information is set 15 forth in a formal complaint, or provided during an official investigation;" and

16 WHEREAS, Recommendation No. 3 states: "That amendments to the WPO provide a 17 meaningful remedy for the effects of retaliation, by authorizing the Ethics Commission to order
18 cancellation of a retaliatory job action, and increasing the limit of the civil penalty available
19 under the WPO to an amount adequate to repay the financial losses that can result from such 20 an action;" and

21 WHEREAS, Recommendation No. 4 states: "That amendments to the WPO include a 22 revision of Subsection 4.115(b)(iii) providing that the burden of proof set forth therein does not 23 apply during preliminary review and investigation of administrative complaints to the 24 Commission;" and

1 WHEREAS, in accordance with California Penal Code, Section 933.05(c), the Board of
2 Supervisors must respond, within 90 days of receipt, to the Presiding Judge of the Superior
3 Court on Findings No. 1, 2, 3.1, 3.2, and 4 as well as Recommendations No. 1.2, 2.1, 2.2, 3, 4 and 4 contained in the subject Report; now, therefore, be it

5 RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors reports to the Presiding Judge of the 6 Superior Court that they disagree partially with Finding No. 1 for reasons as follows: the 7 confidentiality provisions for investigations are important as they protect both the complainant 8 and the respondent during the period when accusations are proved or disproved, but the 9 WPO does have limitations that could potentially be enhanced based on future
10 recommendations from the Ethics Commission; and, be it

11 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors reports that they disagree
12 partially with Finding No. 2 for reasons as follows: the WPO does fulfill the Charter mandate,
13 but could be improved; and, be it

14 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors reports that they agree with 15 Finding No. 3.1; and, be it

16 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors reports that they agree with
17 Finding No. 3.2; and, be it

18 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors reports that they disagree with 19 Finding No. 4 for reasons as follows: there is no empirical data to support this finding and it 20 does not indicate the scope and nature of the problem nor the solution to deal with the 21 problem; and, be it

22 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors reports that Recommendation
23 No. 1.2 will not be implemented for reasons as follows: the Board of Supervisors will work with 24 the Ethics Commission to improve the WPO; however, the Board of Supervisors cannot 25

1 predict the timing or outcome of the Ethics Commission's actions nor the approvals by the 2 legislative body; and, be it

3 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors reports that Recommendation
4 No. 2.1 will not be implemented for reasons as follows: the Board of Supervisors will work with
5 the Ethics Commission to improve the WPO; however, the Board of Supervisors cannot
6 predict the timing or outcome of the Ethics Commission's actions nor the approvals by the 7 legislative body. The Board would also need a more specific definition of "oral complaints" in 8 order to warrant implementation of this recommendation; and, be it

9 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors reports that Recommendation
10 No. 2.2 will not be implemented for reasons as follows: The Board of Supervisors will work
11 with the Ethics Commission to improve the WPO; however, the Board of Supervisors cannot 12 predict the timing or outcome of the Ethics Commission's actions nor the approvals by the 13 legislative body. The Board would also need a more specific definition of what "providing 14 information" entails in order to warrant implementation of this recommendation since there is 15 no clear data that defines the problem; and, be it

16 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors reports that Recommendation
17 No. 3 will not be implemented for reasons as follows: the Board of Supervisors concurs with 18 the Mayor's Office, which states that "under the WPO, the Ethics Commission is provided with 19 punitive, not restorative, powers to respond to the finding of retaliatory job action. However, 20 there are a number of other avenues a complainant can pursue in such circumstances. As 21 the Civil Grand Jury notes, 'City officers and employees have successfully litigated complaints 22 of whistleblower retaliation in state court.' Contrary to the Jury's claim that this proves the 23 ineffectiveness of the WPO, it in fact demonstrates that there is an established process for 24 filing a civil action. In addition, if an employee believes that he or she has been disciplined 25 without just cause or has suffered adverse job impact in retaliation for blowing the whistle, the

1 employee can file a grievance through his or her union. A grievance of this nature may be 2 resolved at the department or Department of Human Resources level, or be escalated to 3 arbitration, in accordance with the negotiated rules of the employee's Memorandum of 4 Understanding. If the Ethics Committee had investigated and found that the job action was in 5 fact retaliation for activities protected by the Whistleblower Protection Ordinance, this ruling
6 would likely influence the independent arbitrator, who does have the power to reverse a 7 retaliatory job action. While the investigation and ruling of the Ethics Commission would be a
8 critical step in the process, as the Ethics Commission notes in their response, labor relations
9 are the responsibility of the Department of Human Resources;" and, be it

10 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors reports that Recommendation
11 No. 4 will not be implemented for reasons as follows: there should be minimum evidence
12 requirement to justify a whistleblower complaint in order for the Ethics Commission to pursue 13 an investigation; and, be it

14 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors urges the Mayor to cause the 15 implementation of accepted findings and recommendations through his/her department heads 16 and through the development of the annual budget.

Re: Civil Grand Jury Report: San Francisco's Whistleblower Protection Ordinance is in Need of Change

Dear Judge Stewart:

The 2015 Civil Grand Jury produced a report regarding the Whistleblower Ordinance requiring responses from the Ethics Commission and the Director. My responses must concur with those of my Commissioners. They are attached.

Sincerely,

John St. Croix
Executive Director

Cc: Board of Supervisors

Finding 1:

The WPO does not fully "protect" City officers and employees from retaliation for filing a complaint as required by the Charter mandate of Proposition C, because it covers only a limited range of complaints, it provides no effective remedy for the victim, and its secrecy provisions limit its deterrent effect.

Finding 1. Partially agree. The WPO does have some limitations that can be improved. However, the confidentiality provisions for investigations are important as they protect both the complainant and the respondent during the period when accusations are proved or disproved. There is a difference between "confidentiality" and "secrecy."

Recommendation 1.1:

That the Ethics Commission recommend to the Board of Supervisors an amendment to the WPO that provides real protection for whistleblowers, in conformity with the Charter mandate of Proposition C.

Recommendation 1.1. May be implemented. The Ethics Commission is willing to suggest amendments to the WPO to the Board of Supervisors but will need the assistance of the City Attorney's Office, the Department of Human Resources and the Controller's Office. Also, due to an already heavy planned workload for this year, and in addition the upcoming election cycle, the Commission anticipates that it will not be able to begin this project until 2016. Further, should the Board of Supervisors communicate in writing to the Commission that they wish to conduct the drafting of these amendments, the Commission will defer to the Board.

Recommendation 1.3:

If the Ethics Commission requests that the Board amend the WPO and the Board fails to act, that the Commission consider submitting such an amendment directly to the voters.

Recommendation 1.3. May be implemented. If the Commission recommends amendment(s) to the Board that are not considered or not adopted, the Commission will then consider sending the amendment(s) to the voters.

Finding 2:

The WPO also fails to fulfill the Charter mandate, in that it does not cover all whistleblower disclosures specified in the Charter.

Finding 2. Partially agree. The WPO may not reach all aspects of complaints provided in the Charter. However, defining "providing information" in terms of oral complaints may provide difficulties in that the record of the complaint is not memorialized as the person making the complaint and the person receiving the complaint could easily have different versions of the conversation.

Recommendation 2.1:

That amendments to the WPO expand the definition of whistleblowing to cover oral complaints to the complainant's department; disclosures to a City department or commission other than the complainant's own; and providing information to any of the recipients listed in the Charter mandate (hereafter "listed recipients"), outside of the formal complaint or investigation process.

Recommendation: 2.2:

That these amendments further expand the scope of covered disclosures to include "providing information" to any of the listed recipients regarding improper government activities, whether or not such information is set forth in a formal complaint, or provided during an official investigation.

Recommendations 2.1 and 2.2. May be implemented. If and when the Commission considers amending the WPO, it will take these recommendations into consideration. It may be advisable to expand the scope of the definition of "providing information" but there needs to be provision for the memorializing of these reports.

Finding 3.1:

While other large California cities and counties have relatively weak laws protecting their employees from retaliation for whistleblowing, this does not relieve the Board of its responsibility under the Charter mandate, to enact an ordinance that genuinely protects whistleblowers.

Finding 3.2:

Whistleblower protection laws that cover government employees at the state and Federal level can serve as a useful model for improving the WPO.

Finding 3.1 and 3.2. No disagreement.

Recommendation 3:

That amendments to the WPO provide a meaningful remedy for the effects of retaliation, by authorizing the Ethics Commission to order cancellation of a retaliatory job action, and increasing the limit of the civil penalty available under the WPO to an amount adequate to repay the financial losses that can result from such an action.

Recommendation 3. May be implemented. The Commission believes these recommendations may well improve the WPO and will also take them into consideration. The Commission notes that Employment Law is not part of our mandate and is normally handled by other departments. Many factors may come into consideration in this area such as MOU's and other labor agreements that are not properly part of the Ethics Commission mission. The Commission also notes that these proposals may create a large increase in staff workload.

Finding 4:

The WPO creates an unwarranted obstacle to administrative complaints of retaliation filed with the Ethics Commission, by imposing a burden of proof on the complainant during preliminary review and investigation of such complaints.

Finding 4. Partially agree. The Commission was not party to the creation of the WPO, and so is not aware of the intended scope by the creators of the ordinance.

Recommendation 4:

That amendments to the WPO include a revision of Subsection 4.115(b)(iii) providing that the burden of proof set forth therein does not apply during preliminary review and investigation of administrative complaints to the Commission.

Recommendation 4. May be implemented. As stated above, the Commission will carefully consider these recommendations when considering amending the ordinance. The Commission believes that there needs to be some demonstrable basis for a complaint in order to justify an investigation.

August 7, 2015

The Honorable John K. Stewart
Presiding Judge
Superior Court of California, County of San Francisco
400 McAllister Street
San Francisco, CA 94102

Dear Judge Stewart:

Pursuant to Penal Code sections 933 and 933.05, the following is in reply to the 2014-2015 Civil Grand Jury report, San Francisco's Whistleblower Protection Ordinance Is In Need of Change. I would like to thank the members of the Civil Grand Jury for their interest in the Whistleblower Protection Ordinance (WPO).

This is a policy area that I care deeply about—I first began working for the City and County of San Francisco in 1989 as the Investigator for the City's first Whistleblower Ordinance. I agree with the Jury's assertion that the City needs a strong and effective process for reporting complaints and protecting whistleblowers. These kinds of protections are a cornerstone of government accountability and transparency. I began my career in public service fighting for these protections, and I continue to care deeply about them.

Introduced in 2004, the Whistleblower Protection Ordinance provides an avenue for employees and government officers to report complaints without fear of reprisal. This program is one component of the City's efforts to protect City resources, deter fraudulent behavior, ensure confidentiality and protect complainants, and establish internal departmental controls. The result is a more efficient government.

The Jury concentrated on the Ethics Commission and its administration of the program, though the Controller's Office also plays a crucial role with respect to both internal and external whistleblower complaints, as does the Department of Human Resources. The Jury finds that as currently written, the WPO is too narrow in scope, more forms of disclosure should be covered, the burden of proof should be modified, and that more remedies for retaliation be provided.

Furthermore, in addition to the critical work of the Ethics Commission and the Controller's Office, existing Department of Human Resources processes negotiated directly with employee representatives provide additional mechanisms to respond to a situation of whistleblower retaliation.

A detailed response from the Mayor's Office to the Civil Grand Jury's findings and recommendations follows.

Findings:

Finding 1: The WPO does not fully “protect” City officers and employees from retaliation for filing a complaint as required by the Charter mandate of Proposition C, because it covers only a limited range of complaints, it provides no effective remedy for the victim, and its secrecy provisions limit its deterrent effect.

Disagree, partially. The WPO, like most laws, may have limitations, and is one element of a broader framework of whistleblower protections and interventions. However, the confidentiality provisions for investigations are important as they protect both the complainant and the respondent during the period when accusations are proved or disproved. As currently structured, the program provides a balance between confidentiality and transparency that is important to maintain.

Finding 2: The WPO also fails to fulfill the Charter mandate, in that it does not cover all whistleblower disclosures specified in the Charter.

Disagree, partially. The Civil Grand Jury is correct in noting that the language in the Charter mandate does not exactly match that of the WPO. However, the Mayor’s Office disagrees with the finding that the WPO fails to fulfill the Charter mandate. The difference in language is the outcome of a normal legislative process. An ordinance is the product of an iterative process, informed by a number of legal and practical considerations that arise as it is being drafted, reviewed, and input from a wide variety of stakeholders is taken into account.

Finding 3.1: While other large California cities and counties have relatively weak laws protecting their employees from retaliation for whistleblowing, this does not relieve the Board of its responsibility under the Charter mandate, to enact an ordinance that genuinely protects whistleblowers.

Agree.

Finding 3.2: Whistleblower protection laws that cover government employees at the state and Federal level can serve as a useful model for improving the WPO.

Agree.

Finding 4: The WPO creates an unwarranted obstacle to administrative complaints of retaliation filed with the Ethics Commission, by imposing a burden of proof on the complainant during preliminary review and investigation of such complaints.

Disagree. The Mayor’s Office agrees that robust anti-retaliation provisions must be in place for complainants to feel comfortable coming forward. However, the burden of proof requirement is there for a reason—it creates an important balance by disincentivizing spurious complaints. Without this provision, there is a real risk that poorly-defined or even false complaints will be filed, siphoning away important staff resources from real retaliation investigations. The WPO is consistent with other government provisions on this matter, notably that of the State of California. (see:

Recommendations:

Recommendation 1.4: If the Ethics Commission and the Board fail to act within a reasonable time, that the Mayor introduce legislation to the Board of Supervisors that would amend the WPO to provide real protection to whistleblowers, in conformity with the Charter mandate of Proposition C.

Recommendation will not be implemented. This sub-recommendation is part of a larger recommendation that first calls for the Ethics Commission to submit an amendment to the WPO to the Board of Supervisors. If the Ethics Commission fails to do so, the Board of Supervisors is to act on its own to amend the WPO. In the event that the Ethics Commission does not take action or the recommended amendment is not enacted by the Board of Supervisors, the Ethics Commission is to submit an amendment directly to the voters. In the event that none of these recommendations occur, Recommendation 1.4 calls for the Mayor to introduce legislation to the Board of Supervisors to amend the ordinance.

The amendment to the WPO recommended here is too vaguely-defined for the Mayor to take a position on it at this time. Further, the sequencing described in the recommendation is not consistent with the way the Mayor's Office approaches major changes to City law. If such changes were to be contemplated, a consensus-based approach would be adopted, with engagement from relevant City departments, stakeholders, legal and subject-matter experts, as well as other elected officials. This is a more effective method of enacting changes to City law.

Recommendation 2.1: That amendments to the WPO expand the definition of whistleblowing to cover oral complaints to the complainant's department; disclosures to a City department or commission other than the complainant's own; and providing information to any of the recipients listed in the Charter mandate (hereafter "listed recipients"), outside of the formal complaint or investigation process.

The recommendation requires further analysis.

Recommendation 2.2: That these amendments further expand the scope of covered disclosures to include "providing information" to any of the listed recipients regarding improper government activities, whether or not such information is set forth in a formal complaint, or provided during an official investigation.

The recommendation requires further analysis.

Recommendation 3: That amendments to the WPO provide a meaningful remedy for the effects of retaliation, by authorizing the Ethics Commission to order cancellation of a retaliatory job action, and increasing the limit of the civil penalty available under the WPO to an amount adequate to repay the financial losses that can result from such an action.

The recommendation will not be implemented. Under the WPO, the Ethics Commission is provided with punitive, not restorative, powers to respond to findings of retaliatory job action. However, there are a number of other avenues a complainant can pursue in such circumstances. As the Civil Grand Jury notes, "City officers and employees have successfully litigated complaints of whistleblower retaliation in state court." Contrary to the Jury's claim that this proves the ineffectiveness of the WPO, it in fact demonstrates that there is an established process for filing a civil action. In addition, if an employee believes that he or she has been disciplined without just cause or has suffered an adverse job impact in retaliation for blowing the whistle, the employee can file a grievance through his or her union. A grievance of this nature may be resolved at the department or Department of Human Resources level, or be escalated to arbitration, in accordance with the negotiated rules of the employee's Memorandum of Understanding. If the Ethics Committee had investigated and found that a job action was in fact retaliation for activities protected by the Whistleblower Protection Ordinance, this ruling would likely influence the independent arbitrator, who does have the power to reverse a retaliatory job action. While the investigation and ruling of the Ethics Commission would be a critical step in the process, as the Ethics Commission notes in their response, labor relations are the responsibility of the Department of Human Resources.

Given the sufficient availability of existing options for complainants to pursue both civil penalties and reversal of the retaliatory job action, there is no need to amend the WPO in the manner recommended.

Recommendation 4: That amendments to the WPO include a revision of Subsection 4.115(b)(iii) providing that the burden of proof set forth therein does not apply during preliminary review and investigation of administrative complaints to the Commission.

The recommendation will not be implemented. As noted above, the burden of proof requirement provides critical balance to the WPO by eliminating the element of moral hazard that its removal would enable.

Thank you again for the opportunity to comment on this Civil Grand Jury report.

Sincerely,
